CHEST DRIVE NEEDS $5,939; TO END NOV. 20

With $23,960.09 collected so far Gettysburg's Community Chest Campaign was within $5,939.91 of its goal of $29,900 today.

Chairman Douglas Houston said the final date for the campaign is November 20.

Following a report night Monday evening at the college dining hall, Houston said that if all solicitors complete their campaign within that period "and if they just secure as much as the persons gave last year, we will be within $800 of our goal." Increases in donations by some givers would put the drive "over the top."

If the drive fails to reach its goal the Gettysburg borough residential area will have been the cause of the failure, he said. While many canvassers in the town "have done an outstanding job," Houston noted that the borough itself is about $1,000 under last year in donation to Community Chest.

SEEKING REASONS

At the same time the industrial and special gifts drive are "showing increases across the board." The increases in the industrial and special gifts section of the campaign had led drive officials to believe that the Chest would exceed its goal this year despite an increase of $1,600 over last year's goal.

The township area immediately surrounding Gettysburg was within $38 of its goal in the drive Monday night and with six solicitors still to report it is anticipated that the township residential portion of the drive will exceed the quota assigned it.

Chest officials said they had no explanation for the decline in donations in the Gettysburg borough residential areas. The decline was not attributable to cut backs in donations, but rather to persons who "simply said 'no.'"

A special committee Monday night took the names of 60 per-

LIONS TOLD OF GHS GUIDANCE BY MISS RAMER

The information gathered by the Gettysburg High School guidance department is so complete that "we sometimes know youngsters better than their parents do," Miss N. Louise Ramer, senior high guidance counselor here, told members of the Gettysburg Lions Club Monday evening in a talk in observance of National Education Week.

Giving a detailed review of the guidance and counseling program, Miss Ramer said, "If we alone could counsel the students without interference from some parents, we could do a better job." She cited an instance in which she advised nine students against taking a foreign language this fall but parents insisted on their children taking those courses and now at the end of the first marking period all nine are making failing grades in the foreign language.

"The interviewing and counseling procedure is the most difficult part of the whole program but it is also the most important piece of work we do," Miss Ramer said. She schedules two interviews an hour and has about completed interviews this fall with the members of the senior class.

"WELL ROUNDED PICTURE"

She described questionnaires pupils fill out twice in their high school careers "which give us a very, very good understanding of the pupil's social background, hobbies and interests." Cumulative school records are kept on each pupil, Miss Ramer said, and

PARISH SCHOOL BUS IN CRASH THIS MORNING

Damage totaled $700 and three youngsters were injured in two accidents in the 100 block of Main St., McSherrystown, this morning.

The three children were hurt at 8:35 o'clock this morning when, according to McSherrystown Police Chief Mannard Masemer, a station wagon operated by Mrs. Patrick L. Brever, 442 Carlisle St., Hanover, containing seven children bound for the St. Joseph academy turned in front of a bus owned by St. Francis Xavier Catholic parish here.

Chief Masemer said the local school bus was returning from Delone Catholic High School at the time and had no children in it. The police chief said the driver, Joyce Speelman, Gettysburg R. 2, saw the station wagon pull to the right and expected that it was about to park. The station wagon then, according to Officer Masemer, turned without signal in front of the bus and the two vehicles collided, causing $50 damage to the bus and $250 to the station wagon.

Three children, William Brever, 10, and Arthur Brever, 7, sons of the driver, and Pam Pesula, 12, Carlisle St., Hanover, were removed to the Hanover Hospital in the McSherrystown ambulance for treatment for cuts and bruises. There were four boys and three girls, students at the academy, in the station wagon, Chief Masemer said.

Earlier, at 7:15 o'clock, two cars collided at about the same spot in McSherrystown. Chief Masemer said Donald J. Little, Hanover, driving east pulled across the center of the road to avoid a truck parked on his side of the highway and his car struck a westbound auto operated by William F. Liversberger, 429 South St., McSherrystown. Damage was estimated at $300 to Liversberger's car and $100 to Little's vehicle.

URGES SIMPLE TEST BE MADE FOR DIABETES

Dr. Raymond F. Sheely, named by the county Medical Society as chairman of the National Diabetes Week campaign locally, today urged countyans to make a simple test to determine whether they may be suffering from the disease.

He suggested the test be made during Diabetes Detection Week which started Sunday.

"The Detection Drive has a special urgency this year," Dr. Sheely said, "because diabetes is on the rise. A total of 2,750,000 Americans now have diabetes and nearly half of them do not know they have the condition."

The immediate objective of the drive, he said, is "to find the one person in 140 who is an unknown diabetic and alert him to the need for prompt medical care. This is an important health project. Diabetes ranks seventh

Men At Coldest Station Go On Binge; Fresh Eggs

By FRANK CAREY

Associated Press Science Writer

SOUTH POLE STATION, Antarctica (AP)—The men at America's coldest and most remote scientific station at the bottom of the world went on a midnight binge last Thursday night—on fresh eggs.

The occasion was the arrival of the first relief contingent for the 20 scientists and U.S. Navy men who wintered at this lonely outpost buried under up to eight feet of drifted snow. With them came the first fresh eggs and milk the South Pole group had seen in almost nine months of isolation from the outside world.

The celebration got under way right after the nightly movie. Within an hour, 15 men had tucked away more than 100 eggs in the warmth of the galley, while the temperature above the snow-covered roof stood at 45 degrees below zero.

HOW RETARDED CHILDREN ARE TAUGHT TOLD TO KIWANIANS

Mrs. Mary S. Longanecker, teacher of the special class, trainees of Adams County, and president of the Adams County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Association for Retarded Children, was the guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Mrs. Longanecker said, "My one aim as president of the county chapter is to put forth every effort to make our community aware of mental retardation, a problem that faces every community, and the facilities provided for the retarded."

She said Adams County Superintendent of Schools Clarence Keefe and the supervisor of special education, Miss Elizabeth Rutledge, "are responsible for the fine school programs we have for the mentally retarded in our county. While the number of certified teachers generally is insufficient to meet the demand," she said, "there are two certified teachers and two trained assistants here."

"We admit to our school mentally retarded children, not mentally ill children," she defined mental retardation as "referring to subaverage general intellectual functioning, which originated during the developmental period and is associated with impairment in one or more of the following: maturation, learning, or social readjustment. There are over 100 known causes of this impairment which cannot be cured," Mrs. Longanecker said. "Statistics are glaring. One out of every 33 children born is mentally retarded."

NEW SCHOOL NEEDED SOON IN BERMUDIAN

The board of directors of the Bermudian Springs school district which opened a new high school early this year and put a new elementary school in use three years ago is feeling the pinch of mounting enrollments and learned Monday evening that a new elementary school or an addition to the present one at York Springs must be erected soon.

Supervising Principal Amos D. Meyers told the directors Monday evening that York Springs Elementary School is crowded beyond its rated capacity and grade school enrollment is increasing by 15 or 20 each year. The school was planned to accommodate 408 pupils and it now has 431. No action was taken Monday.

The board directed the supervising principal and the building and property committee to set up a Civil Defense program for the schools of the district and make recommendations for a fallout shelter program and report at the December meeting.

ADULT COURSES

The directors also authorized a community survey to learn what interest there would be in adult education courses in business education, arts, crafts, music, basic psychology and history. The board authorized the use of the school facilities for such a program if enough interest is shown by the public.

A supplemental bus contract with Paul Wolf was approved to relieve present bus crowding in Upper Huntingdon Twp. The new contract adds $6 per day to the transportation bill.

October bills totaling $43,169 were ordered paid.

Dr. Gilbert McKelven, Lebanon Valley College, will be invited to

BULLETINS

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A U.N. investigating body expressed belief today former Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba was murdered last January with high Katanga officials as eyewitnesses. But it declared also that the central Congo government could not escape responsibility for the death.

A four-man commission said that probably among the eyewitnesses was Moise Tshombe, premier of secessionist Katanga Province. It added that there is a strong suspicion that a Belgian army colonel was the actual perpetrator of the crime.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department issued a call today for drafting 345 more doctors. All the new group will be assigned to the Army.

MISSIONARIES GIVE PROGRAM HERE TUESDAY

The Rev. Rodger M. Singer and family, missionaries on furlough from Hong Kong, will present the program at the quarterly general meeting of the Women of St. James Lutheran Church in the church dining room Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. K. O. Deardorff, president of the organization, will conduct the business meeting and members of the Esther Circle, Mrs. Carl Prosser, leader, will present the devotions.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Singer have served as missionaries in Hong Kong for five years and will tell of their experiences there and the work of the United Lutheran Church in America in that area.

Both are graduates of Gettysburg College. Mrs. Singer being the former Florence M. Empie. The Rev. Mr. Singer is a graduate of the Lutheran Seminary here and did graduate work at the Institute of Yale University, New Haven, Conn.; the Kennedy School of Missions of the Hartford Seminary Foundation, Hartford, Conn., and the College of Chinese Studies, Peking, China. He has been assistant pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church, Baltimore, and served with the Board of Foreign Missions of the ULCA from 1945-49 during which time he spent more than a year in Peking and Shanghai. He then returned to America for six years, serving as pastor of the Lutheran Memorial Church, Baltimore.

Members of the Hannah Circle, the Misses Rosea Armor and Mildred Moser, leaders, and of the Martha Circle, Mrs. Richard Fox, leader, will be hostesses at a fellowship hour following the program.

WILL EXPLAIN MEDICAL BILL

Hospital officials from 18 central Pennsylvania counties will assemble in Harrisburg Friday to learn how medical assistance to the aged will operate in Pennsylvania. Dr. William Tollen, Pennsylvania's Public Assistance Commissioner, will conduct a day-long conference under the auspices of the Hospital Association of Pennsylvania's Central Regional Organization, headed by Walter B. Dillon, administrator of the Annie M. Warner Hospital.

According to Dillon, about 200 persons are expected, including the directors of 18 county assistance offices, who will be guests of the hospital association. Dr. Tollen will explain which aged persons will be eligible for hospital care, who will determine eligibility, what benefits will be covered and conditions under which relatives will be responsible for payment.

Dillon explained that the MAA program was authorized by Congress under the Kerr-Mills Act. The 1961 Pennsylvania Legislature passed an enabling act and authorized state matching funds. The federal government reimburses states on a 50-50 basis for money spent in payment for certain medical care of persons 65 and over.

Dillon pointed out today that government payments will help hospitals only for patients who are 65 and over, and that millions of dollars spent for the care of indigent persons under 65 still be found by voluntary hospitals.

South Africa Staves Off Expulsion From U.N. But Condemned For Its Action

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—South Africa today had weathered twin moves to expel her from the United Nations and place her under a worldwide political-economic boycott. But her white supremacy policies were condemned by a resounding 72-2 vote.

The 103-nation special political committee voted 47-32 Monday for the demand by 30 Asian-African nations and Cuba to get the Security Council to consider ousting South Africa from the United Nations. The vote fell short of the two-thirds majority required for approval by the General Assembly.

One, by Ethiopia, asked the Security Council to consider what steps should be taken against South Africa. Another, by the Soviet Union, calls for an embargo on arms to South Africa, and a Pakistani amendment calls for an oil embargo.

The vote came after three weeks of stormy debate during which South African Foreign Minister Eric Louw contended that expulsion of his country would be "the beginning of the end" of the United Nations.

EX-PRISONER SAYS REDS EYE WORLD RULE

"Communism's design is to conquer the whole world, and its leader, Khrushchev, is a murderer," Apollon Trembow, Orrianna, a Ukrainian who came to the U. S. 12 years ago and became an American citizen in 1956, told the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday evening at the YWCA.

Trembow, onetime school principal and newspaper editor in Vinitsa, Ukraine, and now a male nurse at the Samuel Dixon

APOLLON TREMBOW

State Hospital at Mont Alto, has remained active in efforts of the former Ukrainian refugees in the U. S. to testify to the "Black Deeds of the Kremlin," which was the title given a two-volume book printed by a group of the former Ukrainians and partially written by Trembow under the pen name of "Petro Pavlovich."

Giving his 26th talk before civic clubs, Trembow documented his charge that Khrushchev is a murderer by showing pictures taken of some of the 6,000,000 persons who starved in the Ukraine in 1930-33 when the crops were seized by Khrushchev as administrator for the Ukraine, and pictures of the mass graves uncovered in 1943 by a group including Trembow. There were 9,439 bodies found in the graves, of which about 6,000 were identified.

MANY ARRESTED

Trembow said that in the summer of 1937 and spring of 1938 the Russian secret police under the direction of Khrushchev arrested "many citizens in Vinitsa including the school director at the school where I taught, my father-in-law and many, many other people. The people were told that those arrested were 'enemies of the people.'"

In 1938, Trembow said, his mother-in-law on writing to the central committee, received a letter stating "by order of Nikita Khrushchev, we answer to you that your husband is an enemy of the people."

When the German army occupied the Ukraine in 1943, the

Was Lumumba Executed Before High Officials?

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A U.N. investigating commission expressed belief today Patrice Lumumba, former Congo Premier, was executed last January in the presence of high Katanga officials, including Premier Moise Tshombe.

The commission described as "staged" the account by Katanga officials that Lumumba and two other associates were killed by tribesmen Feb. 12.

On the contrary, the commission said, it accepts as substantially true evidence indicating Lumumba and his associates were killed Jan. 17.

It was not until Feb. 13 that the Katanga radio first announced death of the fiery leader.

The U.N. General Assembly established the commission last April upon recommendation by the security council. Its members were Justice Aung Khine of Burma, Ato Tashoma Hailemariam of Ethiopia, Dr. Salvador Martinez de Alva of Mexico and Maitre Ayite d'Almeida of Togo.

COMPLAINT IN DAMAGE SUIT PLACED ON FILE

The complaint of John C. Davis, Washington, D. C., in his action in trespass brought to recover damages for injuries suffered in a fall August 28, 1957, from the roof of the new Gettysburg College dining hall was filed in the prothonotary's office today.

Davis had previously filed a writ of summons in trespass but had not filed his specific complaint.

The suit is against A. B. Seifert and Son, York; John H. Hampshire, Inc., Bladensburg, Md.; Metropolitan Edison Co. of Reading, and Gettysburg College.

"OVER $5,000"

An employee of the Hampshire Co. for a number of years, Davis was one of several men engaged in placing a gypsum roof on the new dining hall at the corner of W. Lincoln Ave. and College Ave. when a metal rod in the hands of a fellow workman, Gilbert Wood, touched a high tension line of the Metropolitan Edison Co. about five feet from the roof and about three feet above it. The electricity coursed through the rod held by Wood to a metal strip or form, then along it to a metal rod being used by Davis, according to the complaint. The resulting shock hurled Davis from the roof to the ground 25 feet below. Wood was fatally injured and another suit has been before the court against the same defendants, brought by the executor of his estate, for some time.

Davis claims he suffered a torn

WORK ON NEW HIGH SCHOOL RUNS AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Work on the new Gettysburg Area High School building is coming along "real well" and is ahead of schedule, members of the joint school committee of the Gettysburg Joint School Board were told Monday evening at their November meeting at the high school building.

The general contractor, A. B. Seifert and Son, Inc., York, is rushing work to get as much as possible done before bad winter weather sets in and the cooperation by the contractor with the school authorities has been "excellent and we appreciate that," Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle said.

Footings are poured for the gymnasium section of the new building and foundation walls are being built. "Only the weather can delay this project now," one representative of the contractor said.

PROVIDE STORAGE-SHELTER

The directors voted to spend an extra $12,600 on the new building to make use of space under the new gym for storage purposes and at the same time provide a fallout shelter if such space is needed. The storage area will be covered with a course of crushed stone, drainage will be provided, an opening left in the foundation wall for a 14-foot doorway, retaining walls placed at the entrance and a blacktop approach provided. Contingency funds in the bond issue will be used for this work.

Decision to go ahead on the storage space-shelter project came on an 11-1 vote after most directors agreed the storage space could be provided now much more cheaply than after the building is completed.

After a detailed description by George J. Wickard of the United Telephone Company, the directors voted to install a private automatic branch-exchange in the new high school with all school buildings in the district to be reached through that central point. Wickard said that with 16 phones to be added in the new building, the monthly bill under the current setup would be $10 per month more than the new proposal. There would be a $225 installation charge and a five-year contract is required.

"ABOUT YOUTH"

There is no substitute for youth . . . it's equal to all things . . . and those who have this treasure . . . possess a heart that sings . . . youth can smile when showers fall . . . to drive the clouds away . . . yes, it can find the sunshine . . . however dark the day . . . youth never gives up trying . . . its faith is always strong . . . capable of coming back . . . whenever things go wrong . . . some say the world is owned by youth . . . but this is far from true . . . for youth lacks the experience . . . to gain what it is due . . . experience comes only as . . . we travel through the years . . . the saddest part about it is . . . time multiplies our fears.

people of the Ukraine felt free to investigate the mass graves which a number knew existed but which they feared to investigate previously.

OPEN MANY GRAVES

During the period of May 24 to October 7, 1943, the Ukrainian commission opened 39 graves on Pidlisa St. in Vinnytsa, to find one grave empty and 5,644 bodies in the others. In the Orthodox cemetery they opened 42 graves containing 2,406 bodies and in Gorky Park they opened 14 graves and found 1,390 bodies.

Trembow, reporting on the steps that led to Khrushchev taking over rule of the Ukraine, said that "Stalin sent Khrushchev to clean up the Ukraine of its anti-Soviet and patriotic nationalist elements and also of elements that would be against Khrushchev's party power in the Ukraine."

Trembow said that when the Germans arrived in the Ukraine the people were happy to be free of the Russians. They soon found no difference between the dictators and began to battle both the Russians and Germans. Trembow was captured, placed first in an Italian war prisoner camp, later was transferred to German prisons and was released in 1945 when Allied troops overran the prison where he was held.

PROUD OF CITIZENSHIP

Later he was brought to the U. S. through the assistance of I. Z. Musselman, Ortanna, who promised through a church agency to give the Trembrows a home.

Trembow said that "Khrushchev today has to get rid of Stalin, for his existence reminds the world of Khrushchev's crimes. Khrushchev may say that Stalin made the basic decision for the mass starvation in the Ukraine in which 6,000,000 people died of hunger during the 1930s, but Khrushchev cannot obliterate the fact that it was he who carried out the policy of Stalin in the Ukraine. In 1930 he was not a member of the Communist Central Committee. By 1934 he was a full-fledged member. He proved he was worthy of the promotion by executing the man-made famine in the Ukraine."

Telling of his happiness to be in America," he said, "It was a dream that finally came true. I am no longer Apollon Trembow, of the Ukraine, I am Apollon Trembow, American citizen, and proud to be so."

IN PHILIPPINES

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines chose between Carlos P. Garcia and Diosdado Macapagal today in the most peaceful presidential election of the islands' 15-year history as a republic.

By the time the polls closed only one confirmed shooting and two unconfirmed incidents of serious violence had been reported, an unusually low figure for this young Asian republic which counted at least 22 political slayings during the campaign.

In the South Mindanao Province of Cotabato a poll watcher was shot and critically wounded. The national constabulary were investigating reports that a poll inspector was shot at Zamboanga del Norte, also on Mindanao, and that another inspector was killed and several wounded in Iloilo City, on the central island of Panay.

There were reports of maulings, vote-buying and intimidation, but these are usual for Philippine elections.

The outcome of the election probably will not be known before late Wednesday when returns come in from Garcia's stronghold in the central and southern islands.

to divide the new gymnasium into two play areas. Monday night's action provides that the type of door originally specified in the bid invitations be used, provided a further investigation in districts presently using that type divider brings favorable results.

Using a color schedule provided by the architect, the decisions about colors to be used in the new school were left up to the administration and a committee of teachers.

The joint school committee approved this list of names to be added to the list of substitute teachers in the district: Susan Wolfinger, Mrs. Patricia McCord, Mrs. Edward Orwig, Mrs. Sarah A. Bryant and Lee Raffensperger.

The directors chose "Victorian Pink" as the color of brick for the new high school with the explanation that it is "very close" to the brick in the present high school.

The Boy Scouts were given use of five rooms at the high school for University of Scouting sessions to be held next February and March. The Gettysburg High School alumni were voted use of the high school for the annual Christmas dance.

A letter from Fire Marshal Donald Jacobs said local schools got an "excellent rating" on a recent fire drills and gave a special commendation to Richard Tackett and his custodial staffs.

TO MAKE STUDY

Bills totaling $17,247 were ordered paid.

Superintendent Riegle informed the directors that the Division of Audits of the state Department of Public Instruction is going to conduct a study of the transportation system in Adams County and asked that local school officials cooperate with the state auditors.

Superintendent Riegle reported a study is being made of a request from the Pennsylvania Association for the Blind to present a school safety program here.

2,315 MEALS DAILY

Mr. Riegle also told the directors the Gettysburg school system is one of 19 in Pennsylvania that is participating at both the elementary and secondary levels in a Pilot Study and program in "youth physical fitness." Mr. Riegle added: "We believe this is a very worthwhile program and that it will benefit our young people."

The report of the treasurer, the First National Bank, showed a current general fund balance of $45,999 after expenditures of $111,236 and receipts of $88,983 in the last month.

A consolidation report for the three school cafeterias for October showed a net "profit" of $876, which goes into the cafeteria fund. Meals were served 20 days last month to an average of 2,217 students and 98 adults each day.

Heavy fall buying had showed a cafeteria operating loss of $2,249 in September.

The activities fund report showed a balance of $20,365 and the athletic report showed a balance of $2,690 after October receipts of $1,819.

LAST FOR GUISE

The directors were given copies of the monthly builders' conference held on the site of the new high school last Wednesday.

Financial statement were distributed to each district by Business Manager Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr. showing where each stands on its current payments to the jointure. All districts currently are maintaining credit with the district treasury.

President Ralph W. Guise presided at the meeting, his last regular meeting in 18 years on the Straban Twp. and the Gettysburg Joint School Board. He did not run for re-election and his term as a Straban director expires this month.

The joint board organization meeting will take place next month.

TO Discuss Plans For Potomac River

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alternate plans by Army Engineers for development of the Potomac River water resources will be discussed with river basin residents at seven public meetings including one at Chambersburg, Pa., Dec. 5.

Others will be held at Cumberland, Md., Nov. 29 and Frederick, Md., Dec. 6.

The Engineers Monday announced four alternate plans proposing construction of 12 to 20 major reservoirs for development of Potomac River water resources.

Each of the four alternate plans includes 409 smaller reservoirs scattered in areas of Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia which lie in the basin.

she described report cards currently being used in the high school which record pupils' attitudes as well as their grades.

The testing program in Grades 7 through 12 was reviewed including standardized tests in reading, mathematics tests, mental abilities, developmental battery tests, vocational inventory tests, achievement and psychological tests, English achievement tests, National Merit scholarship tests, college boards and scholastic aptitude tests. Health records on each pupil also are kept and altogether this data gives a "well rounded picture" of each pupil, the speaker said.

President David Blosser presided at the meeting at the VFW home. The club announced a $25 donation to the Adams County Tuberculosis Society.

The station's scientific leader, bearded chief meteorologist Ben W. Harlin, said the lowest temperature of the winter was 102 below zero, on Aug. 12. The record is minus 110 degrees, recorded on Sept. 13, 1959.

The chief recreational project during the winter was the building of the "Bamboo Room," a cozy little place with walls surfaced with bamboo rods ordinarily used for markers on the snow.

Beer is available in this southernmost bar in the world.

CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS

Here, and in the galley-mess hall, the team at the polar station celebrated "Christmas" on June 21, and "Sunrise Day" on Sept. 23.

The latter is the date on which the sun officially rises again after the months-long winter night although a kind of eerie twilight prevails for several weeks before.

Although the two tunnelled entrances to the buried camp were blocked by snow during the winter, meteorologists several times a day squeezed through escape hatches to check on instruments scattered over several acres. Rope lines guided them back to camp when the winds whipped the snow.

Weather balloons were launched to heights of 35,000 feet twice a day. Geophysicists regularly traversed a narrow 1,000-foot-long tunnel to check on geomagnetic instruments which have to be kept isolated from iron and other metals.

Dr. Philip K. Swartz of Napa, Calif., a physician, is presently in charge of the camp although his relief, Dr. Malcolm Lentz of York, Pa., is among the new arrivals.

GOODLING ASKS
CRASH PROBE

Congressman George A. Goodling, of the Adams, York, Cumberland district, has written the following letter to the Robert S. McNamara, secretary of defense, pursuant to numerous inquiries he has received relatives to the recent plane crash and the resultant death of 77 Army recruits:

"Nothing can restore the lives of the 77 persons which were snuffed out in the tragedy in Virginia last week. The grief of those who said a final farewell a few hours before cannot be eased by official inquiries or explanation. We do, however, expect and demand a full investigation."

"The country has a right to know why a company purported to have had four previous accidents, received official reprimands, was fined, their pilots suspended, and the company name charged following a previous accident, is allowed to continue to transport recruits. Certainly this is a most questionable procedure and must be corrected immediately."

Fall Commencement
At Shippensburg

SHIPPENSBURG — Shippensburg State College will have its first autumn commencement exercises at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the Memorial auditorium. Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis will be the speaker.

Dr. Ralph E. Heiges, president of the college, will confer the Bachelor of Science degrees in Education on approximately 58 men and women. Dr. D. Paul Smay, dean of instruction, will present the candidates.

With the inauguration of its three-term college year supplemented by three summer sessions equivalent to a fourth term, the Shippensburg College now has four graduations each year, in February, May, August and November.

A practicing attorney in Philadelphia since 1933, Lt. Gov. Davis holds memberships in several organizations and has served in several state and national capacities. He was elected lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania in November, 1958, after serving as a common pleas judge since 1951.

among the illnesses in the United States causing death.

"A controlled diabetic, one who is under medical care, can almost always continue to lead a normal life. Since complications usually arise when the condition is neglected, our task is to find unknown cases."

Each person can give himself his own test by taking a one ounce sample of urine two hours after lunch and two hours after dinner on one day and before breakfast on the next and then taking the three containers to his own physician. The doctor can quickly tell from examination of the specimens whether the person has diabetes.

Physical symptoms which should alert people to diabetes include excessive thirst, excessive urination, loss of weight despite unusual hunger, intense itching, slow healing of cuts and bruises, changes in vision, easy tiring and pain in the extremities. However anyone can develop diabetes without these symptoms.

Grand Knight Bernard I. Noel conducted the regular meeting of the McSherrystown Knights of Columbus Council 2551 recently. Reports of the recording secretary, Jean B. Noel, and the financial secretary, I. M. Staub, were approved.

The grand night reported that the district memorial services will be held at the Harrisburg Council Sunday, November 26, at 2:30 p.m. There will be a First Degree conducted for new members Sunday, January 14, at 2:30 p.m. in the McSherrystown Council chambers.

It was announced by the program chairman that the annual Christmas banquet for members and their wives will be held Sunday, Dec. 10, and the Christmas party for the members' children will be held the following Sunday, Dec. 17.

A mass for all the deceased members will be offered during November in the Annunciation Church.

Final plans were made to prepare for the annual Thanksgiving party to be held Thursday and all members are asked to assist Tuesday and Wednesday evening in the necessary preparations for the event.

Five Properties
Are Transferred

Janet M. Spangler and Esther V. Stambaugh, executrices in the estate of Alveta M. Feeler, Littlestown, sold a property in that borough for $5,500 to Ervin L. Ecker, Littlestown.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snyder, Straban Twp., sold a property in Twin Oaks for $4,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Baird, Gettysburg.

The First National Bank of Gettysburg, executor in the estate of Martha McC. Fishburn, Franklin Twp., sold a property in Franklin Twp. for $360 to John W. Brehm and Edith M. Wachter, Cashtown.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter S. Mountain, Gettysburg, sold a property in Freedom and Cumberland Twp. for $250 to Dr. and Mrs. Bruce N. Wolff, Gettysburg.

Raymond J. Wetzel and Clara B. Wetzel, Ortanna R. 1, sold a property in Franklin Twp. for $350 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Potter, Washington, D. C.

MEET MINIMUM NEEDS

The Community Chest drive is designed to raise $4,300 for the Boy Scouts, $4,000 for the YWCA, $5,000 for the library, $1,500 for the Civic Nurse Association, $5,500 for the Red Cross; $100 each for the Pennsylvania United Fund, Pennsylvania Mental Health Association and the United Service Organization.

Because each of the amounts listed for the various organizations barely meets the expenses listed by the groups (all are below the amounts that had been asked by the organizations), a $3,000 sum is sought for contingency use so there will be funds available in case of emergency need of any of the units.

Chairman Houston asked persons who may not have been contacted in the campaign, or who wish to increase the amount they have donated, to call the Community Chest office in the YWCA building, Phone ED 4-5809, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Solicitors are asked to bring the sums they collect between now and November 20 to the Community Chest office in the YWCA during those hours, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

COLONEL CLAY DIES

SOUTHPORT, Conn. (AP)—Retired Army Col. Wallace L. Clay, a native of Renovo, Pa., who held the first patent for an armor-piercing bullet used by the Army, died Monday at his home. He was 73.

Clay received a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Pennsylvania State University in 1909. He returned to school at the age of 54 and was graduated from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration in 1932.

The Pentagon, headquarters of the Defense Department in Arlington, Va., has 3,688,896 square feet of floor space on five floors.

McSherrystown

MRS. CLYDE STERNER
McSHERRYSTOWN — Borough council, at a meeting Monday evening, approved the purchase of another building to be renovated and used for borough purposes. The building now owned and occupied by the borough will be offered for sale in sealed bids.

The street committee reported that the eastern end of South Street has been resurfaced and plans are being made to continue the project next spring when weather is favorable. Also included in the project will be the resurfacing of North Street from Second to the western end.

Burgess Joseph J. Staub presented his report to council and turned over motor code violation fines collected during September and October. He also informed council that there were only a few complaints concerning vandalism during the recent Halloween season.

Chief of Police Marnard Masmer reported on the arrests made by him and his patrolmen during the month of October. The report of the borough supervisor indicated that white lines had been painted on the streets in town and school crossings were also painted for winter. Repairs to side streets have almost been completed and some tarring and chipping are still to be done for this season.

The new borough truck has been put into service and will be used during the winter for snow removal when the new attachment for the use of a snow plow is installed.

At a meeting of the Holy Name Society held recently, plans were completed for the annual card party in the parish hall Dec. 5 and 6. A membership drive is now on in the parish. Henry Snyder, president of the Conewago Deanery from St. Joseph's Church, Hanover, spoke briefly. Plans are under way to prepare for the regional banquet in April. Films on farming were presented by Mr. Lewis Klunk, a member of the society, and refreshments were served.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
FIFTY YEARS AGO

May Be Fatal Fall From Horse:
Harvey W. Alwine, of Paradise township, York county, fell from a horse while riding to East Berlin last Friday, causing concussion of the brain and very serious internal injuries. He had remained unconscious since the accident and few hopes are entertained for his recovery. Drs. Hengst and Lau, of East Berlin, are in attendance.

Find Gold Coins: Following the funeral of Joseph Reese, near Dillsburg, friends of the aged man, in going through his belongings, found 43 one dollar gold pieces and a number of the old 5 and 10 cent paper notes that were in circulation many years ago. Mr. Reese, who was known as "Old Josie" Reese, was never married and for many years lived alone in a small home at the foot of the mountain near Round Top. Recently he told Mrs. John Myers, a neighbor, that after his death she should go to the garage of his house and there she would find something. At this place the money was found, sewed in some bed clothing.

Oaster-Noel: Miss Mary Noel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Noel and Charles Oaster, son of Mrs. Mary and the late Peter Oaster, both of Conewago township, were married at a nuptial high mass at 7 a.m. Tuesday in Conewago Chapel by Rev. Germanus Kohl.

Massachusetts Officials: Here: Massachusetts state officials, members of the Senate and House of Representatives to the number of half a hundred, arrived in Gettysburg on Wednesday evening in two private Pullman to spend several days here before proceeding to Valley Forge on Friday.

Governor Eugene Foss was expected to come to Gettysburg with the party but he was compelled to return to Boston from Petersburg, Virginia, to which place the entire party had gone to participate in the dedication of a monument, Press of business at Boston, together with a general dislike for traveling, are given as the reasons for the executive's not coming to Gettysburg.

Many Deer Fall Before Hunters: Reports from the deer camps tell of several of the fleet footed animals being killed on the opening days while many more have been seen.

The first deer shot on the opening day was brought down by Ernest Haines, of Waynesboro, who killed a 156 pound buck at Sandy Ridge, above Hopewell Mills, at 9 o'clock in the morning. He had been hunting only one hour when he had his good luck. There were three in the little herd from which he picked his prize. During the morning he saw six deer.

Near The Earth: An event of wide interest among star-gazers occurred Friday morning when the planet Mars approached nearer to the earth than it will at any time in the next two years.

The distance between the earth and Mars Friday was 47,000,000 miles, just about half that between the earth and the sun. The planets sometimes approach within 35,000,000 miles, but, too, they are sometimes nearly a quarter of a million miles apart.

Another interesting view in the eastern sky Friday morning about 4 o'clock was the planet Venus and the moon, the latter appearing directly below the star forming the emblem of star and crescent.

Today's Talk

"KEEP APLUGGIN' AWAY!"
The one who emphasized the title of this Talk in a most appealing way was the American negro poet, born of slave parents. His name was Paul Lawrence Dunbar, and he died in 1906.

Many of you have read his poetry. One evening when this particular poem was being read over the radio, I stopped my typewriter to listen. What a simple philosophy. What wisdom, after all, I thought.

Just "Keep apluggin' way!" Underneath the glass on my office desk is the little sentence I so frequently like to quote: "The dog barks, but the caravan passes on." It's that way with all important things. If you go right on, you are going to arrive, especially if you have determined and definitely decided just where you want to arrive.

The trouble with most people is that they have no special time or place in their minds as an objective. If they do, they want to get there either by a shorter route than the ordinary one prescribed, or they want to eliminate the necessary pains and labor.

The "get-rich-quick" artists line the main thoroughfares and side lanes of life. But it is the Lincolns, the Websters, the "Stonewall" Jacksons, and the Dag Hammarskjolds who dot our national and world fabric and make it durable.

We all learned in our mathematics that "the shortest distance between two points is a straight line."

Yet there are those who want to short-cut that straight line! Never mind. Saw away. And "keep apluggin'!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Speculating In Futures"

Just Folks

THE JOB
Suppose life were football, or baseball, or tennis.
And your name were Watson, or Williams, or Dennis,
And you were the fullback; you'd know without doubt then
Just what your job was, its ins and its out then,
And just what a fullback with real spirit should be,
And you'd try to be the best fullback you could be.

Well, life is like football — without explanation
You find yourself cast at some difficult station.
You don't know just why you were placed where life holds you
Or the curious chance that in such fashion molds you.
But here you are working at something or other;
Give your best to that job and don't envy another.

You know what your name is — I'll venture that maybe
They called you Jim Green when you came as a baby;
You know that you're here, but not what God meant you
To do when to labor as Jim Green he sent you.
Well, this is your duty, whatever God's plan be:
To be the best sort of a Jim Green you can be!

Don't worry about the vague why and the wherefore;
There is much in this life we can't answer, and therefore Give thought to yourself. Are you fair in your labor?
Do you make a good man, a good friend, a good neighbor?

With your job as Jim Green, as the swift years are going,
Are you doing your best? Is your Jim Green worth knowing?

Molotov's Ouster Seen As Another Gimmick To Keep Khrushchev's Power Intact

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — V. M. Molotov's life has been ruined in a hair-splitting contest. About the only consolation left him is to wonder: Who's next?

The old Bolshevik, now 71, thinks Stalin, his great friend and benefactor, was a more aggressive revolutionary than Premier Khrushchev, and he said so. For this he has been disgraced and Sunday went home to Moscow jobless.

Just as any differences between American Democrats and Republicans, seen from Moscow, must seem infinitesimal, so any differences in the ultimate aims of Stalin and Khrushchev, looked at from here, are practically invisible.

Many of the old Bolsheviks, executed by Stalin, were restored by Premier Khrushchev to good standing in the Russian history books after Stalin's death, although this must have been cold comfort to them then.

IN POWER STRUGGLE

That was four years ago when Khrushchev first denounced Stalin in a murderous monster. At the time he was in a power struggle, which he won, with Molotov and other old Stalinists like Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich.

They were demoted to obscure jobs, under the Kremlin rule of winner take all, but otherwise left unharmed because Khrushchev was trying some changes such as more civilized treatment for the Soviet people at home and a foreign policy more flexible and imaginative than Stalin's but less openly pugnacious and stupidly stumbling.

Here are a couple examples of the stupidity:
1. Stalin tried to shut off Berlin with a blockade. President Truman countered with the airlift. Stalin tried to be tough. He wasn't tough enough. Because he lacked courage to risk war by shooting down the airlift, the blockade failed.

TEST IN KOREA

2. He tried to test the West's will with a war in Korea, letting the North Koreans start it. This not only got nowhere, but Stalin so scared the Allies they formed their NATO military alliance, the last thing he wanted. Nobody has accused Khrushchev of not wanting to spread communism. But in the hydrogen bomb age, when both sides could destroy each other, he is more subtle than Stalin, so far using devices short of war.

But this wasn't good enough for stubborn old Molotov who described Khrushchev's tactics as "antirevolutionary" and "pacifist." Khrushchev now has linked Molotov and the others with Stalin's terror, although he was Stalin's boy, too.

The result: The Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress recommended that Molotov be thrown out of the party. Thus Molotov's whole life's work—done as he thought right, no matter how it looks to others—goes down the drain.

Since the party switches tactics to fit its needs at any given time, Molotov can only hope that in time Khrushchev will be denounced as an enemy of communism and he himself restored to good standing in the history books.

Negro's Conviction Is Voided By Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court set aside Monday the conviction of Charles Clarence Hamilton, a Negro sentenced to death in Alabama on charges he broke into a dwelling "with intent to ravish" a white woman.

Counsel for Hamilton contended the Negro was denied due process of law guaranteed by the U.S. Constitution because he did not have aid of a lawyer when he was arraigned on the charges. Justice Douglas delivered the unanimous decision.

Douglas said: "When one pleads to a capital charge without benefit of counsel, we do not stop to determine whether prejudice resulted. In this case the degree of prejudice can never be known. Only the presence of counsel could have enabled this accused to know all the defenses available to him and to plead intelligently."

But what makes Molotov's belief that Khrushchev is antirevolutionary and thus anti-Stalin look grotesque when observed from here is that Stalin abandoned Communist revolution not long after he took over from Lenin in the 1920s in order to build up "socialism in one country." This was simply recognition of a reality.

Russia at the time didn't have the strength to export revolution. So Stalin set about building up the Soviet Union as a No. 1 world power. The foundation he laid at home—in industrial and nuclear development—is what now enables Khrushchev to talk tough.

There are some who look upon both Stalin and Khrushchev not as revolutionaries at all but as managers. This kind of conclusion seems too early. Stalin was beginning to stir himself after World War II when he had power.

NOT AS CLUMSY

This country's possession of the atomic bomb kept him from being too brazen. If it had not been for that alone after the war, when Europe was prostrate, he might have tried with his huge and intact armies to overrun the area with war and revolution.

There is nothing to indicate Khrushchev is any less revolutionary than Stalin. He is just not as clumsy. And he, like Stalin, is now living in a nuclear age when he has to be careful. This doesn't mean he won't push where he can.

SEES JUMP IN NATURAL GAS PRICES SOON

By MAX B. SKELTON

CHICAGO (AP)—An oil executive said today a sharp increase in the wellhead price of natural gas is mandatory.

Ira H. Cram, New York City, said federal price controls have curbed incentive to develop new supplies for a product for which demand is skyrocketing. He said federal controls have kept wellhead prices below competitive levels.

The vice president of Continental Oil Co. said he sees no hope for congressional approval of remedial legislation in the near future.

He said there is indication the current average wellhead price of 14 cents per 1,000 cubic feet will have to rise to 20 cents by 1965 and to 27 cents by 1970.

OIL PRICE STEADY

In a speech prepared for delivery before the Statistical Section of the American Petroleum Institute's 41st meeting, Cram acknowledged many variables make such increases subject to argument.

"However, under any reasonable assessment of the future," he said, "I have been unable to juggle the variables without concluding a substantial increase in the average wellhead price is mandatory."

Cram said a worldwide surplus of oil probably will keep the price of domestic crude oil at the current average of $2.88 a barrel through 1970. He said this means natural gas will have to provide a greater percentage of total wellhead revenue than in the past.

Bullet-Riddled Car Is Recovered

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 1954 sedan, its right front door riddled with holes which might have been caused by a shotgun blast, was found Monday night partially submerged in the Delaware River, about a mile southwest of International Airport, police report.

Maurice L. Maitland, chief of Delaware County detectives, said he planned to check the car in efforts to determine if it was the auto used by the killer of Mrs. Elizabeth Neate, of Glenolden, whose body was found Nov. 4 near her home.

An anonymous telephone call to detectives led police to the auto, a green Ford Customline. The car believed used in the Neate slaying was described as a 1953 or 1954 Dodge or Plymouth. Police, however, decided a thorough check of the auto should be made.

Basketball Replacing Grid Efforts In Scholastic Pace

By FRED WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP) — The sounds of feet thudding against footballs gradually is being replaced by the sounds of basketballs on the hardwood floors in Pennsylvania scholastic sports.

The basketball teams already are in training for the 1961-62 season, while the current football season just about has run its course.

There will be only a handful of games on the gridirons this weekend. Thanksgiving Day will wind up the season except for a handful of championship playoffs.

These conference titles were decided over the weekend:

Southeast—Suburban 3, Radnor (repeat); Suburban 4, Darby; Interacademic, Haverford and Malvern.

MIDSTATE TITLES

Midstate—Central Penn. Harrisburg Harris; South Penn. Carlisle (repeat) and Chambersburg; Capital Area, Palmyra and Middletown; Susquehanna, Lock Haven (repeat); Susquehanna Valley, Sunbury; Keystone, Hazleton and Coal Twp.

West-Central—Lock Haven, West Penn. Class A (repeat).

West—Avala, WPIAL Class B; Westinghouse (repeat), Pittsburgh City; Punxsutawney, Skyline.

Several major conference titles still are being contested, however.

Nearly all will run down to the Thanksgiving Day wire.

The WPIAL Class A championship will be decided this weekend when Penn. Point meets Albert Gallatin.

3-TEAM AFFAIR

But the WPIAL's Class AA title may become a three-team affair since both Beaver Falls and Moenness currently are tied for the playoff spot opposite Wilkesburg, which finished on top of the ratings.

In the southeast, the Suburban 1 and 2 titles, the Bux-Mont, the Ches-Mont leagues will have to wait for the Nov. 23 games. So, too, will the Philadelphia Public League title.

LaSalle and Monsignor Bonner finished their Philadelphia Catholic League seasons tied for first place. A playoff will be held to decide the league champion and representative in the city championship affair.

The Wyoming Valley, West Side, Lehigh Valley and Lehigh-Northern crowns in the northeast will not be settled until Thanksgiving Day.

Coal Twp., in the Southern Division, and Old Forge, in the Northern Division, appear headed for their division titles in the East Penn. Conference. Coal has finished its league season, but Old Forge still has Taylor-Moosic on Nov. 23.

DROPPED FROM LIST

Wyoming saw its perfect record sullied over the weekend when Dallas Twp. held it to a 6-6 tie. It also was the first touchdown scored against the Luzerne County team all season, the only team in the state that boasted such a record.

Twenty-six teams remained unbeaten and untied through last weekend's contests. The only team dropped from the list, besides Wyoming, was Washington Twp., a 13-0 loser to Avella in the WPIAL-B title game. Washington Twp. had won 19 straight going into the game.

Once-tied Lower Moreland, co-champion of the Inter-County League in the southeast, also suffered its first loss of the season when Council Rock, the Lower Bucks Class B champion, handed it a 19-13 setback.

Chapman, who has passed for at least one touchdown in Albright's last 17 games, threw one TD pass, scored one touchdown himself, and completed 7 of 13 attempts for 73 yards in a 21-0 victory over Juniata last Saturday.

Also named to the team were ends Ron Segal of Ithaca and Bill Gray of West Chester, tackles Paul Abodeedy of Amherst and Jim Boggs of C. W. Post, guards Don Eller of Wilkes and Jim Lightner of Coast Guard, center John Dishaw of Penn Military, halfbacks Chuck Kuntzman of Muhlenberg and Frank Melos of Wagner, and fullback Boyd Taylor of Lehigh.

Fullback Rick Taylor of Gettysburg was chosen sophomore of the week.

SOONERS GET TOUGHER WITH EACH CONTEST

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Has Oklahoma turned the corner from failure to success as the 1961 college football season nears its close?

Those who've seen the Sooners win their last two games, after losing the first five, think so, particularly after a crisp 7-0 victory last Saturday over heavily favored Missouri.

"You can definitely say that Oklahoma is on the way back," Army scout Bill Rowe said today. "He has seen the Sooners play four times—two won and two lost—in preparation for Army's game at New York's Yankee Stadium against the Sooners this Saturday."

Those close to the Oklahoma scene feel that the NCAA probation imposed in 1960 hurt the recruiting program.

USED RESERVES
"Bud Wilkinson has done the best coaching job of his life this year because he's had to," OU publicist Harold Keith told the New York Football Writers Monday.

"He's been forced to use kids who last year couldn't make the traveling squad, or just were not good enough to win a letter. And he's had to use them against opposition as fine as we've ever had in the Big Eight Conference."

Wilkinson has also been plagued by injury problems, and when these diminished, along with the emergence of Bob Page as a like-charger quarterback, his fortunes began to turn for the best.

Against Army this week, he is expected to have tackle Bill White off the injury list. White is considered OU's best player.

The Cadets will be without No. 1 quarterback Dick Eckert, who re-injured an ankle last Saturday against William & Mary.

REGIONAL TELECAST
The game also will be telecast (ABC) regionally.

Minnesota, hot on the trail for a repeat of its 1960 national championship, will have halfback Jim Cairns off the injury list for this week's Big Ten game against Purdue. Coach Darrell Royal of the top-ranked Texas Longhorns said he still didn't expect fullback Ray Poage to be ready for this week's game against Texas Christian.

Quarterback Bill Murkowski and end Chuck Bryant of Ohio State were expected to be ready for the game against Oregon. Columbia, which can gain at least a share of the Ivy League title by beating Penn this week, is expected to have fullback Tom O'Connor in the lineup.

Blames Equipment For Grid Deaths
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Lehigh University football coach says he feels "the buying of cheaper equipment, either to save a few dollars or because they (colleges) can't afford better, has been responsible for most of the 18 or 19 deaths."

Speaking before the Touchdown Club Monday Bill Leckonby said equipment should be examined by college officials and not just purchased from the lowest bidder.

"You can't blame plastic helmets for injuries," he said. "We have used plastic equipment for 14 years and seldom have had a head injury. On the contrary, we did have some trouble with leather furnishings. Equipment is getting better every year."

Lehigh fullback Boyd Taylor was cited for his play against Bucknell last week. He gained 108 yards in Lehigh's 12-7 victory.

Elgin Baylor To Enter Armed Forces
NEW YORK (AP)—There's apparently no way to stop Philadelphia's skyscraper Wilt Chamberlain from pouring in the points and grabbing his third consecutive National Basketball Association scoring title, but the Army's going to give him an assist anyway.

Chamberlain, No. 1 man with 496 points and a 49.6 game average, loses his closest competitor when Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor, runner-up with 383 points and a 34.8 average, leaves for military service Nov. 26.

Behind Baylor in the latest statistics released by league headquarters today are New York's Richie Guerin and Baylor's teammate, Jerry West. Guerin has 359 points for a 27.6 average while West has 356 for a 32.4 mark.

Jets Move Up In ABL; Majors Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Los Angeles Jet moved up a bit in the American Basketball League's Western Division last Monday night with a final period defense that held the Cleveland Pipers to a meager nine points.

Los Angeles trailed 91-89 going into the fourth quarter, then outscored the Pipers 10-9 for a 106-99 decision that moved them to within one-half game of first-place Kansas City. In Monday night's only other game, the Chicago Majors beat the Washington Tapers 97-87 at Muskegon, Mich.

After drawing even at 84-84 early in the final quarter, the Jets pulled in front on George Yardey's basket and never were headed. Yardey was high for Los Angeles with 27 points.

Chicago set the pace all the way against Washington but had to close with a rush to nail it down, outpointing the Tapers 11-2 in the last 5 minutes. High point men were Ron Zager of the Majors with 22 and Roger Kaiser of Washington with 18.

REBOUNDING IMPORTANT
Baylor was getting his affairs in shape today, for he plays his last game at home Wednesday. He recently bought a home here.

"I've been with this club for four years and I thought this was the year I had a chance for the championship," says Baylor.

"I had hoped I could play out the season, but since I have to go I'm no different than any other guy who is called up by the Army."

"Elgin has six more games to play with us before he leaves," said Coach Fred Schaus. "We're not dead. We'll carry on just as we have until Elgin leaves, then make the necessary adjustments."

"Of course, we'll miss Baylor's 35 points a game, but his rebounding is even more important to us. He's been getting 20 a game, and we'll have to depend upon Howard Joffitt and the rookie, Wayne Yates."

Yates is 6-8, Joffitt 6-7. Tom Hawkins will take over Baylor's forward job. He was captain of Notre Dame's basketball team in his senior year and has been with the Lakers two years. He is 6-5.

BAYLOR WILL MISS LAKERS AND $50,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Elgin Baylor reports to Fort Lewis, Wash., as an Army medical corpsman Nov. 26 he will go off salary as a $50,000-a-year Los Angeles Laker basketball star and draw $85-a-month from Uncle Sam.

Baylor, 26, signed a five-year personal services contract with Laker owner Robert E. Short this year, calling for $250,000. General Manager Louis R. Mohr said a new contract, probably for the same duration and same terms, will be negotiated when Baylor completes his year of service.

Baylor was the high scorer with 39 points Monday night as the Lakers beat the Chicago Packers, 127-113, and extended their lead in the Western division of the National Basketball League race. The Lakers, now are 10-2. It was the ninth loss in 11 games for the Packers, who were led by Walt Bellamy's 30 points.

TEXAS RETAINS LEAD AS BEST COLLEGE TEAM
By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Texas remained the No. 1 college football team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press football poll and in the process won over another half-dozen panelists.

Last week the Longhorns, now 8-0 and rushing toward the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, collected 35 first-place votes. This week, 41 members of the nationwide group of 47 sports writers and sports-casters placed them on top.

Alabama, also 8-0, continued a strong second, followed by Ohio State, 6-0-1, Louisiana State, 7-1, and Minnesota, 6-1. That's just how the top five looked a week ago.

2 NEW TEAMS
Texas finished with 463 points on the basis of 10 points for first place, 9 for second and so on. Alabama had 401 and Ohio State 365. Alabama, which had six first-place votes a week ago, had three this time.

Georgia Tech and Missouri tumbled out of the top 10, while Purdue and Syracuse jumped into the select circle.

One unusual aspect of the poll this week was that two losers, Michigan State and Colorado, both hung on in the top 10. Usually, when a team loses it nose-dives right into the also-rans.

The top teams with first-place votes in parentheses:
1. Texas (41)
2. Alabama (3)
3. Ohio State (2)
4. Louisiana St. (1)
5. Minnesota
6. Mississippi
7. Purdue
8. Colorado
9. Michigan State
10. Syracuse

Henry Adios Eyes Rich Stake Race
WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP)—Henry T. Adios drew post position No. 3 today and was installed a 5-2 favorite for harness racing's richest event, the $145,378 Messenger Stakes, Friday night at Roosevelt Raceway.

The colt will compete against eight other 3-year-olds in the rich 1-mile feature, with Stanley Dancer, his driver, Henry T. Adios, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas Derrico of Pelham Manor, N.Y., has won 15 times and has finished in the money 25 times in 27 starts this year.

Current second choice for the Messenger at 7-2 is Adios Don, to be driven by Bob Camper, who will be the only horse in the second row—post position No. 9 along the rail.

The only filly in the field, Way Wave, and Lang Hanover are rated at 4-1.

Adiosand, who drew the pole position, and Tartop Jimmy are the Del Miller Stable entry and rated at 8-1.

Hogan Hanover is 10-1 and Yankee Express is 12-1. The longest shot of the nine probable starters is High Test at 15-1.

The Messenger, a half-mile oval, will be worth $72,688 to the winner.

Bears Will Meet Reds On Saturday
HERSHEY—The Hershey Bears, riding a seven-game home victory series, meet the Hornets in Pittsburgh Wednesday night before taking on the Providence Reds Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the Sports Arena.

At home the Bears have a perfect record winning over every club in the league, and hold a win string over Providence on Hershey ice, that dates back to 1959, during the latter part of season.

On the road the Bears' record is far from perfect, winning only one of seven road games, and that one over the Pittsburgh Hornets. They shut out the Hornets in that game, 3-0.

ACAPULCO, Mexico (AP)—Flood waters today hampered rescue work along a 120-mile stretch of Pacific Coast where at least 80 persons reportedly died in a fierce weekend tropical storm.

The death toll was reported from the village of Nuxco, north of Acapulco.

The storm hit in the stretch between Acapulco and Zihuatanejo.

NEW YORK (AP)—Coach Red Auerbach starts a three-game suspension from the National Basketball Association tonight when his Boston Celtics play the Hawks in St. Louis.

The fiery coach of the defending NBA champions was set down Monday by NBA President Maurice Podoloff, who said the suspension would have taken effect sooner except that he was out of town over the weekend.

TOKYO (AP)—Featherweight champion Davey Moore, now a two-time winner in Japan, would like to defend his world title here a third time providing the price is right.

But before Japanese promoters sign him again, they'll probably have to find some other talent than Kazuo Takayama, the 25-year-old challenger Moore outpointed Monday night in a rough 15-round title bout.

TEXAS RETAINS LEAD AS BEST COLLEGE TEAM

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Texas remained the No. 1 college football team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press football poll and in the process won over another half-dozen panelists.

Last week the Longhorns, now 8-0 and rushing toward the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, collected 35 first-place votes. This week, 41 members of the nationwide group of 47 sports writers and sports-casters placed them on top.

LOVABLE DEER IS SAFE FROM HUNTER'S GUN

By BOB COOPER
PRESTONSBURG, Ky. (AP) — Oswald is a deer who loves people.

Hundreds of residents of this eastern Kentucky area worried themselves sick about Oswald during the four-day open season on deer when hunters stalked the colorful hill country.

They didn't take into account that Oswald was as clever as he is lovable. Oswald deftly beat a strategic retreat to a remote section where there was almost no hunting.

There, said conservation officer Raymond Copley, Oswald has been living in grassy pastureland. In bad weather, he makes use of a warm barn provided by Bill Boyd, a farmer in the Calf Creek section of Floyd County.

HAS TRUSTED PEOPLE

From his birth about 21 months ago, Oswald has trusted people. For quite a while he lived with them, romping on lawns, meandering into the house, and feeding himself in neighborhood gardens.

When he added tobacco leaves to his diet, the neighbors decided to evict him. He was sent to the Dewey Lake area to become what he was born to be—a wild deer.

He didn't understand. He made new friends: campers, fishermen, hunters, conservation officers in the state park. He never became

Don't worry if your doctor tells you that you're suffering from "occhymosis of the conjunctive tissues and the periorbital cuticular tissues." That's just his way of telling you someone gave you a black eye.

Absent-minded: More than half gun shy.

STOPPED WORRYING

As deer season approached, his friends began to worry. They decided to house him in a barn until it was safe again outside. This time Oswald balked. He wouldn't be caught.

Each of the four nights during the deer season which ended Saturday at sundown, one of Oswald's closest friends, Arnold Workman, checked the stations which register hunters' kills.

Oswald wasn't among the dead. Now he is free again to roam the hill country. The people who love him have stopped worrying until next year.

Inventive America: Since 1836 the U.S. Patent Office has issued three million patents, now grants about 50,000 yearly. Abraham Lincoln held patent No. 6,469 for a device to buoy vessels over shoals. Despite the increased use of plastics in everyday living, the average American still consumes wood and paper products each year equivalent to the tree growth on 2.4 acres of forest land.

Old jokes never die: Robert Q. Lewis tells about the cannibal who ate his nagging mother-in-law — then found she still disagreed with him.

FATHERS LOOKING UP

More and more U.S. fathers are having to look up to their sons. In 1900 only one out of 25 U.S. men was six feet tall. Now it is about one in five.

Prosperity note: Americans this year will swallow more than 16 billion aspirin tablets.

Busy signal: We now have about 67 million telephones, more than half the world's total. The average person (not including teenagers) makes 472 phone calls a year.

After a New York honeymoon, the couple will live in Montrose in a home adapted for wheelchair living.

Swiderski is a radio and television repairman.

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Premier Antonio Salazar's government reported today that an opposition boycott of Sunday's one-party legislative election failed.

Government spokesmen said that, with the ballots in European Portugal nearly all counted, about 70 per cent of the 1.3 million eligible voted despite opposition appeals to shun Salazar's National Union candidates.

All opposition candidates withdrew last week, leaving the field clear for the 130 candidates of the National Union.

Ask Renewal Of Nuclear Test Talks

MOSCOW (AP) — The United States and Britain Monday asked the Soviet Union to return to Geneva Nov. 28 and begin further talks on a nuclear test ban treaty.

The resumption was proposed in similar notes delivered by American and British messengers to the Foreign Office.

There was no immediate information here as to whether the Russians will accept the offer. But last week the chief Soviet delegate to the United Nations, Valerian Zorin, seemed to rule out such a possibility. He said a nuclear test ban treaty must be worked out within the framework of a general disarmament agreement.

The Geneva talks were recessed after the Soviet Union broke the moratorium on nuclear testing Sept. 1. Since then, the Russians have exploded more than 30 nuclear devices and have indicated they are prepared to go on testing if need be.

The British and the Americans reminded the Russians in their notes that a resolution passed by the General Assembly Nov. 8 called for a resumption of the nuclear test ban talks.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula called on the United Nations Monday for practical means to end Katanga's secession "once and for all." He demanded that all mercenaries and irregular foreign military advisers arrested by U.N. forces be handed over to Congolese courts for trial.

GOP Women Okay Newburgh Plan

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Council of Republican women endorsed Monday "the spirit of the Newburgh 13-point plan" which cracks down on so-called welfare chiselers.

"Social welfare laws have expanded over the years to a point where a full, frank and fair scrutiny of them is long over due," the council said in a resolution approved at the opening session of its 39th annual meeting here.

The controversial Newburgh, N. Y., plan tightened up requirements for eligibility for relief and other forms of public assistance in the town. It also required relief recipients to work for the community, if physically able to do so.

The resolution was one of a series adopted from a range of subjects adopted from state legislation to foreign policy.

CHARGE VIOLATION

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—State police Sunday cited Two Guys from Harrison, a discount house in nearby Whitehall Township, for allegedly selling nonessential items on Sunday in violation of blue laws.

Meanwhile, the firm's attorney, Morris Efron, said he would appeal a previous arrest on the ground the law is being enforced indiscriminately.

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Premiers of five Nordic nations — Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden — have decided to speed up the work of mutual cooperation. They made the announcement Sunday in closing a two-day conference.

The premiers made no comment on the Soviet request for mutual defense talks with the Finnish government.

GOP ALLEGES INDIFFERENCE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's Republican legislative leaders have voiced concern over what they termed Democratic indifference toward ending the congressional reapportionment stalemate.

Rep. Albert W. Johnson, R-McKean, House GOP floor leader, and Sen. James S. Berger, R-Potter, Senate GOP leader, challenged Democrats to let voters elect congressmen on a statewide or at large basis in 1962.

"I think the governor and Bill Green, particularly Bill Green, are showing a profound indifference to (congressional) reapportionment," Johnson said.

U.S. Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic chairman, left for a Florida vacation after last Tuesday's election. There was no indication when he would return.

Lawrence's itinerary this week shows he will start a week's vacation Friday.

A spokesman for the governor said Lawrence's choice of a vacation spot still was indefinite.

America's rapidly growing population will consume twice as much energy by 1980

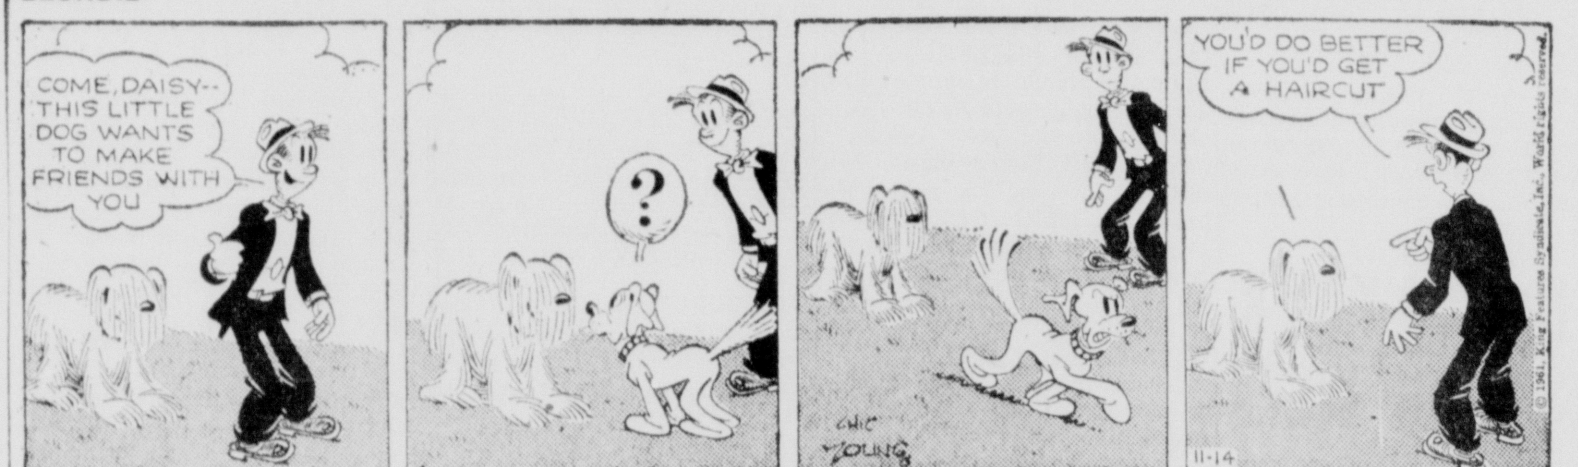

Glance at the second hand on your watch. Each seventh second a baby is born in the U.S. — more than four million a year. We'll have half again as many citizens by 1980. And, our need for energy grows even faster than our population. By 1980 the nation will need twice the energy being consumed today.

Where will it come from? Much will come from present energy sources, some from new ones. Whatever the source, a large share of energy in its most efficient and usable forms will be transported via pipelines. Texas Eastern's natural gas pipelines, stretching from the Mexican border to the Atlantic Seaboard, have capacity to fuel thousands of factories and heat millions of homes. Our Little Big Inch pipeline system, largest of its kind, delivers liquid petroleum products from Gulf Coast refineries to Midwest markets. Looking to the future, Texas Eastern is growing and diversifying today to meet tomorrow's energy needs.

The Littlestown Ministerium made plans for the annual community Thanksgiving service and preaching mission series at the bimonthly meeting held Monday morning in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Rev. The Ministerium decided that the community Thanksgiving service, originally scheduled to be held in St. Paul's Church, will now be held in St. John's Church on Wednesday evening, November 22, at 7:30 p.m. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. John C. Chatlos, pastor of St. James' United Church of Christ, along the Harney Rd. The pastor of the host church, Rev. Mr. Karns, will be liturgist.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Rev. Mr. Shultz will be in charge of publicity for the preaching mission; Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh was appointed to distribute posters and Rev. Mr. Kammerer will prepare written invitations for the local organizations. The local Ministerium will continue the annual drive for good used clothing until Thanksgiving. Clothing donated by each congregation will then be taken to the grove hall at St. John's, near town, where it will be picked up for transportation to the World Service Center at New Windsor, Md.

The Ministerium will cooperate with the Allied Veterans Council to plan the annual Veterans' Day service for next year. The meeting concluded with prayer by Rev. Mr. Jones. In attendance were the Revs. Chatlos, Jones, Karns, Koons, Shultz and Flinchbaugh. The ministers will meet again in January.

A Lovelier
You

By MARY SUE MILLER

YOUTHFUL BOSOMLINE. Numerous mature lovelies have asked for ways to restore a youthful life to the bosomline. The answer is found in an exercise routine, designed to strengthen and firm the chest muscles.

Although simple sounding, the following routine produces effective results for both a slight and heavy bosom. To perform it, you need a sturdy leather strap or belt. This is the action.

1. Hold strap high above head, so that hands are slightly more than shoulder width apart. Pull strap taut and keep it so. By bending elbows, slowly draw strap down behind head to touch shoulders. Then fling arms back to starting position. On down pull, work as though weight resisted movement; punch air hard on upward fling. Repeat ten times daily.

2. Hold strap high overhead, as before. Slowly lower arms to shoulder level, straight out in front of body; quickly fling them up and back, as far as possible. Repeat ten times.

As improvement in the bosomline requires time, do be patient and work faithfully. Moreover, if you are generally overweight, you should combine a sensible reducing diet with the exercise routine. A gradual loss of weight, coupled with a gradual build up of muscle, would achieve wonders.

So take the double dose, if you must. In the end, you will feel proud of yourself. And that's the only way a woman should ever feel!

Let me help you with the problem of a too-fleshy arm, chest or upper back by sending you my leaflet, TRIMMERS AND SLIMMERS. It contains a set of coordinated spot reducing exercises—easy to do, quick to get results. Just write me: A Lovelier You, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and five cents in coin to cover handling.

THRU YEARS

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP)—Nineteen years ago Robbie Wilson, 6, got bored with his sister Edna's fourth birthday party and ran out to play in the street.

The driver of a passing automobile swerved but hit the child and killed him. The driver carried the boy into the house and collapsed.

A doctor treated Robbie's parents and the motorist for shock. Then the driver left. He didn't tell the Wilsons his name. They knew only that he lived in England, in the city of Sunderland.

for the girl. It was a rocking horse. There was no sender's name. The only clue was the postmark: Sunderland.

On her sixth birthday, Edna got a child's cycle. Again it came from Sunderland.

Each year since Edna has received an expensive birthday present from Sunderland. As she grew older the gifts became more sophisticated — a beauty set, French perfume, cosmetics.

WEDDING PRESENT
When she became old enough to drive, money arrived to pay for driving lessons.

A beautiful evening gown was her 21st birthday gift.

A few weeks ago Edna married and went to live in an Edinburgh suburb. The family has no idea how the man in Sunderland found out; but he sent a wedding present.

The Wilson family still doesn't know who he is.

PLAN HEARING
AT RICHMOND

WASHINGTON (AP)—An open hearing into the crash of an Imperial Airlines plane that killed 77 will be conducted by the Civil Aeronautics Board in Richmond, Va., Nov. 21 and 22.

An official said it was unprecedented in recent years for the board to get with such speed.

The plane, ferrying 74 army recruits, crashed at Richmond Wednesday night. All the soldiers, 31 of them from Pennsylvania, and three crew members were killed.

To date, only 46 bodies have been positively identified.

H. B. Godwin, Federal Aviation Administration supervising inspector, said in Richmond "This is probably one of the fastest hearings following a major aircraft disaster that has ever been conducted."

The relative accessibility of the wreckage and the survival of two crew members helped speed the investigation.

Add a half teaspoon cumin seeds to chili con carne that uses a pound of ground beef.

PLAN HEARING
AT RICHMOND

WASHINGTON (AP)—An open hearing into the crash of an Imperial Airlines plane that killed 77 will be conducted by the Civil Aeronautics Board in Richmond, Va., Nov. 21 and 22.

An official said it was unprecedented in recent years for the board to get with such speed.

The plane, ferrying 74 army recruits, crashed at Richmond Wednesday night. All the soldiers, 31 of them from Pennsylvania, and three crew members were killed.

To date, only 46 bodies have been positively identified.

H. B. Godwin, Federal Aviation Administration supervising inspector, said in Richmond "This is probably one of the fastest hearings following a major aircraft disaster that has ever been conducted."

The relative accessibility of the wreckage and the survival of two crew members helped speed the investigation.

Add a half teaspoon cumin seeds to chili con carne that uses a pound of ground beef.

Molotov's Ouster Seen As Another Gimmick To Keep Khrushchev's Power Intact

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — V. M. Molotov's life has been ruined in a hair-splitting contest. About the only consolation left him is to wonder: Who's next?

The old Bolshevik, now 71, thinks Stalin, his great friend and benefactor, was a more aggressive revolutionary than Premier Khrushchev, and he said so. For this he has been disgraced and Sunday went home to Moscow jobless.

Just as any differences between American Democrats and Republicans, seen from Moscow, must seem infinitesimal, so any differences in the ultimate aims of Stalin and Khrushchev, looked at from here, are practically invisible.

Many of the old Bolsheviks, executed by Stalin, were restored by Premier Khrushchev to good standing in the Russian history books after Stalin's death, although this must have been cold comfort to them then.

IN POWER STRUGGLE

That was four years ago when Khrushchev first denounced Stalin as a murderous monster. At the time he was in a power struggle, which he won, with Molotov and other old Stalinists like Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich.

They were demoted to obscure jobs, under the Kremlin rule of winner take all, but otherwise left unharmed because Khrushchev was trying some changes such as more civilized treatment for the Soviet people at home and a foreign policy more flexible and imaginative than Stalin's but less openly pugnacious and stupidly stumbling.

Here are a couple examples of the stupidity:
1. Stalin tried to shut off Berlin with a blockade. President Truman countered with the airlift. Stalin tried to be tough. He wasn't tough enough. Because he lacked courage to risk war by shooting down the airlift, the blockade failed.

TEST IN KOREA

2. He tried to test the West's will with a war in Korea, letting the North Koreans start it. This not only got nowhere, but Stalin so scared the Allies they formed their NATO military alliance, the last thing he wanted. Nobody has accused Khrushchev of not wanting to spread communism. But in the hydrogen bomb age, when both sides could destroy each other, he is more subtle than Stalin, so far using devices short of war.

But this wasn't good enough for stubborn old Molotov who described Khrushchev's tactics as "antirevolutionary" and "pacifist." Khrushchev now has linked Molotov and the others with Stalin's terror, although he was Stalin's boy, too.

The result: The Soviet Communist party's 22nd congress recommended that Molotov be thrown out of the party. Thus Molotov's whole life's work—done as he thought right, no matter how it looks to others—goes down the drain.

Since the party switches tactics to fit its needs at any given time, Molotov can only hope that in time Khrushchev will be denounced as an enemy of communism and he himself restored to good standing in the history books.

ABANDONED REVOLUTION

But what makes Molotov's belief that Khrushchev is antirevolutionary and thus anti-Stalin look grotesque when observed from here is that Stalin abandoned Communist revolution not long after he took over from Lenin in the 1920s in order to build up "socialism in one country." This was simply recognition of a reality.

Russia at the time didn't have the strength to export revolution. So Stalin set about building up the Soviet Union as a No. 1 world power. The foundation he laid at home—in industrial and nuclear development—is what now enables Khrushchev to talk tough.

There are some who look upon both Stalin and Khrushchev not as revolutionaries at all but as managers. This kind of conclusion seems too early. Stalin was beginning to stir himself after World War II when he had power.

NOT AS CLUMSY

This country's possession of the atomic bomb kept him from being too brazen. If it had not been for that alone after the war, when Europe was prostrate, he might have tried with his huge and intact armies to overrun the area with war and revolution.

There is nothing to indicate Khrushchev is any less revolutionary than Stalin. He is just not as clumsy. And he, like Stalin, is now living in a nuclear age when he has to be careful. This doesn't mean he won't push where he can.

FIRST WOMAN MAYOR IN PA.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Evelyn Fay Javens is looking forward to taking office in Beaver Falls after "breaking all the rules" in becoming Pennsylvania's first woman mayor.

Mrs. Javens, a Republican committeewoman, upset incumbent John Buksa, a Democrat, in last Tuesday's election which saw a number of other GOP candidates upset Democrats throughout the state.

"The party chairman said I was breaking all the rules," she said. "But I won—and that's the important thing. I had a good group of church people behind me and a lot of volunteer workers as well. They really worked."

Mrs. Javens said she and her women volunteers rang practically every doorbell in the Beaver County town. The campaign began after she won the Republican nomination in April.

"It started out two nights a week, but toward the end of the campaign I was ringing doorbells four nights out of seven," she explained.

File Fifteen Suits For Faulty Vaccine

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Fifteen suits charging Cutter Laboratories sold faulty antipolio vaccine have been settled out of court for $1,727,000, attorney Melvin Belli announced Sunday.

The Berkeley pharmaceutical firm said total settlements to date have exceeded insurance coverage by more than $1 million. The latest settlement brought to more than $3 million the total settlements growing out of charges that some vaccine marketed by Cutter in 1955 contained live polio virus.

In test cases, juries found Cutter innocent of negligence in manufacturing the Salk vaccine, but awarded damages on the ground that the firm breached an implied warranty since the vaccine caused the disease it was designed to prevent.

Ex-PSU Teacher Nabbed In Holdup

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Hugh N. Williams, of Wheeling, W. Va., a former teacher of accounting at Pennsylvania State University, has been held for the grand jury on $15,000 bail on charges growing out of an attempted bank holdup last week.

The 37-year-old Williams, unable to make bond, is in Montgomery County prison.

He was formerly charged over the weekend with assault and battery, attempt to kill and attempt to commit armed robbery.

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—A grain terminal workman narrowly escaped death when he was sucked to the bottom of a grain hopper by shelled corn pouring from a railroad car.

Frank Lundin twisted his ankle and fell from a ladder heading into the hopper Saturday. He lay helpless for 10 minutes before workmen rescued him. A physician said Lundin was lucky the weight of the grain did not collapse his lungs.

Murrow Not Getting Help He Asked From Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Edward R. Murrow has come and gone, and his mission to Hollywood was considerably less than a smash hit.

The noted newscaster, now director of the United States Information Agency, came to town to tell the film industry that it could do a better job in presenting the image of America abroad.

Murrow had two strikes against him:

1. Film producers don't like to be told what to do and will yell "censorship" when someone in the government tries. Murrow realized this and even blunted some of the pointed remarks in his prepared speech.

REPORTERS BARRED

2. Curiously for a onetime newsmen, he barred reporters from the dinner with producers. Federal officers reportedly enforced his dictum. His speech was delivered to news offices in a plain envelope amid mystery and turned out to be not the exact speech he delivered. It was not surprising that he got a bad press.

Murrow cited overseas reports: "From India—movies are doing a lot of harm to America." From Latin America—Movies are a terrible influence. From South-east Asia—Movies misrepresent. We think of American housewives as useless drones always smoking and drinking cocktails."

Producer Eric Johnston arose to deny Murrow's reports categorically and proclaim that American films were doing a splendid job overseas.

DIDN'T GET MESSAGE

"The whole thing was embarrassing," a producer told me afterward. "Nobody seemed to get Murrow's message at all. They didn't want to."

To this observer, it seems a shame that Hollywood continues to neglect its responsibility to present this nation to the world.

A look at the upcoming product shows a large supply of sex—"The Chapman Report," "All Fall Down," "Splendor in the Grass," and morbid psychology—"Sweet Bird of Youth," "Summer and Smoke," "Children's Hour."

NOT GETTING IT

The American government will be pictured with "Advice and Consent" and "The Best Man," which display the use of blackmail and corruption by high figures. American fumbling abroad is treated in "Judgment at Nuremberg," "Town without Pity" and "The Ugly American."

Are there any film that show the goodness of America? I don't see any, unless you can include a couple of musicals—"Music Man," "State Fair" and a Western—"How the West Was Won." But they are scarcely a mirror of contemporary America.

"The republic is in greater danger now than during the last two wars," Ed Murrow said in asking Hollywood's help. He doesn't appear to be getting it.

The first zoo in the United States was established in Philadelphia in 1874.
